

Join us on this Grape Adventure to:
Spain, The Rhone Valley, & Paris!
April 4-18, 2016

A wine cruise is a fantastic way to add a unique, epicurean dimension to an already fantastic vacation. Not only will you enjoy sightseeing grand cities and charming villages, but you will be treated to special excursions that are specially designed to immerse you into the rich heritage of areas such as the Penedes area in Spain, Chateauneuf-du-Pape and Beaujolais in France, then finishing in Paris!

From the magic of Barcelona to the romance of Paris, this wine cruise itinerary is one of our most captivating. Begin with three nights in Barcelona, a tour of this magnificent city and a special excursion to a famous wine district, then transfer to Arles, stopping to visit medieval Perpignan along the way. Overnight aboard your luxurious vessel in Arles, the city where Vincent Van Gogh lived near the end of his life. From Arles, cruise to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Avignon, where a wine tasting excursion takes you to the renowned Chateauneuf-du-Pape. Continue to Viviers and Tournon, where you will sample L'Hermitage wine and also enjoy a chocolate tasting. In Vienne, you will have a walking tour before cruising to Lyon, followed by a winery visit and tasting the next day. Your Rhone wine cruise comes to an end in Lyon, the gastronomic capital of France. Enjoy a champagne tasting before embarking on a high-speed TGV train to Paris for your three wonderful nights in this beautiful city.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

Travel insurance is optional but highly advisable. The rate is $498 per person. A copy of the policy will be emailed to each participant and there will also be a copy available to review at our meetings. If you extend your vacation, the insurance will be adjusted to show the applicable dates and pricing.

A non-refundable deposit of $1200.00 per person is due to secure your place on this tour. Although this will be a little different than past trips with John Allen, your stay while in Barcelona and Paris will be private touring and finely appointed accommodations at 4-&-5 star hotels with breakfasts provided, some special meals along the way and luggage handling. The vessel you will be sailing on – AMA Waterways – AmaDagio – offers just 74 staterooms making this sailing experience fairly intimate compared to 120 – 220 staterooms on other cruises. The company remains family-owned and operated and allows them to offer the highest levels of service and attention. You are in for a real treat!

Final payment must be no later than January 5, 2016.
